

3 Days Etosha National Park Guided Safaris

A three-day excursion, accommodation included, offers a stress-free experience at Etosha National Park. The Etosha National Park is Namibia's premier tourist attraction. It is one of the world's largest game parks extending more than 350km east to west and covering an area of 22 270 square kilometers. The vast open plains, many waterholes, and the large numbers of resident game make visiting Etosha National Park very rewarding.

Day 1 (2024)

Windhoek to Etosha National Park

We will pick you up at your hotel or guesthouse and visit Namibia's premier tourist attraction—Etosha National Park! Etosha is one of the world's largest game parks, extending more than 350km from east to west. The wide-open plains, numerous waterholes, and a large number of game (estimated at 200 lions, 16 000 zebras, 7000 oryx/gemsbok, 2500 elephants, 3000 giraffes, 600 black rhinos, and many other species) makes visits to Etosha National Park very rewarding. First, you will do an afternoon game drive through the park, visiting waterholes looking for predators and their prey, zebra, giraffe, elephant, rhino, and many different species, before sunset. Then, at the Okaukuejo Resort, you can settle into your rooms while waiting for dinner to be served.

Okaukuejo Resort:

Okaukuejo Resort is the largest and main camp of Etosha National park. The Resort is only 110km from the nearest town Outjo. The most adjacent gate is Andersson gate, which is 17km from Okaukuejo Camp. The lodge offers a variety of accommodation and camping facilities. Upon arrival, you will see the large entrance gate and a lookout tower. All visitors need to check-in upon arrival at the reception in Okaukuejo Camp.
